

THE NORTH AMERICAN LAKE MANAGEMENT SOCIETY

PRESENTS

13th Annual Southeastern Lake Management Conference "Working Together—Sharing Resources"

March 7-9, 2004

Hosted by:

Lake and Watershed Association of South Carolina

Conference Highlights

The conference will be held over 2 1/2 days from March 7th through the 9th. The conference program will consist of a plenary session and four concurrent breakout sessions. A stream restoration workshop will be held during the conference. Networking opportunities will be provided in the exhibit area and during a reception on the evening of March 8th. The technical sessions will address issues of interest to lake management professionals as well as private citizens and public organizations.

Preliminary Program Highlights

Please note that programming and speakers may be subject to change. For updated information, please visit the SC DHEC, Bureau of Water's webpage (www.scdhec.gov/water) or you can directly link to the PDF at <http://www.scdhec.gov/water/pubs/nalms.pdf>.

Register using the form in this package or online.

Web Site: For the latest conference news/online registration, go to www.nalms.org. For the latest program, go to <http://www.scdhec.gov/water>.

Workshop: Dr. Greg Jennings, PhD, PE, Associate Director, Water Resources Research Institute, North Carolina State University, will conduct a Stream Restoration Workshop. This is an exciting part of our program for which there will be an extra charge ($30.) for materials. Please check the appropriate box on the registration form.

Exhibitors: We will have an exhibit area for networking with watershed management vendors. If you are interested in exhibiting, contact Jeff Baker at jbaker@hach.com.

Hotel: Enjoy the exciting ambiance of Charleston amidst the resort atmosphere of the Wild Dunes. Use the registration form included in this brochure for making your room reservations. Special conference rates of $99 will only be guaranteed through January 22nd. Be sure to mention the Lake and Watershed Association (LWASC). Wild Dunes is the place to be! Ocean blue, fairway greens and colorful history – 1,600 oceanfront acres of a natural barrier island - 20 minutes from Charleston.

Transportation: Charleston is served locally by most major airlines but is also an easy drive from Columbia, SC, or Savannah, Ga. The hotel is located 30 minutes from the airport on the Isle of Palms. The hotel's preferred shuttle service is Absolutely Charleston. Advance reservations are required and can be made by calling 843-747-4448 or 800-747-0689. Driving directions will be provided on the web site.

Charleston Activities: Local activities will be organized for Sunday March 7th and will be advertised on the conference website.

Questions: Contact Suzanne Thomas-Cole via email at suzycole@msn.com.
